

Safeguarding Policy for Working with Young People - ROJA ARTS CIC

Young People's Safeguarding Policy for ROJA ARTS CIC

Roja Arts CIC abides by the duty of care to safeguard and promote the welfare of young people and is committed to safeguarding practice that reflects statutory responsibilities, government guidance and complies with best practice requirements.

- We recognise the welfare of young adults is paramount in all the work we do and in all the decisions we take
- All young people, regardless of age, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation has an equal right to protection from all types of harm or abuse
- Some young people are additionally vulnerable because of the impact of previous experiences, their level of dependency, communication needs or other issues
- Working in partnership with young people, their parents, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare.

Purpose:

ROJA ARTS CIC will:

- Protect young people who receive ROJA ARTS CIC's services from harm.
- Provide staff and volunteers, as well as young people and their families, with the overarching principles that guide our approach to child protection.

This policy applies to anyone working on behalf of ROJA ARTS CIC, including senior managers and the board of trustees, paid staff, volunteers, sessional workers, agency staff and students. Failure to comply with the policy and related procedures will be addressed without delay and may ultimately result in dismissal/exclusion from the organisation.

Definitions:

Adult at Risk:

- An adult who has needs for care and support (whether or not the authority is meeting any of those needs),
- is experiencing, or is at risk of, abuse or neglect, and
- as a result of those needs is unable to protect himself or herself against the abuse or neglect or the risk of it.

Adult Abuse: Adults may be vulnerable to neglect and abuse or exploitation from within their family and from individuals they come across in their daily lives. There are four main categories of abuse, which are: sexual, physical, emotional abuse, and neglect. It is important to be aware of more specific types of abuse that fall within these categories, they are:

- Bullying and cyberbullying
- Domestic abuse
- Female genital mutilation
- Grooming
- Historical abuse
- Online abuse

Safeguarding young people: Safeguarding young people is defined as:

- protecting young people from maltreatment.
- preventing impairment of young people's health or development.
- ensuring that young people are growing up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care.
- taking action to enable all young people to have the best outcomes.

Legal Framework:

This policy has been drawn up on the basis of legislation, policy and guidance that seeks to protect young people in England.

ROJA ARTS CIC should have in place arrangements that reflect the importance of safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young people as well as vulnerable adults.

The Prevent duty

Some organisations in England, Scotland and Wales have a duty, as a specified authority under section 26 of the Counterterrorism and Security Act 2015, to identify vulnerable young people and prevent them from being drawn into terrorism. This is known as the Prevent duty.

These organisations include:

- Registered young people providers
- Local authorities
- Police
- Prisons and probation services
- NHS trusts and foundations.
- Other organisations may also have Prevent duties if they perform delegated local authority functions.

Young people can be exposed to different views and receive information from various sources. Some of these views may be considered radical or extreme.

Radicalisation is the process through which a person comes to support or be involved in extremist ideologies. It can result in a person becoming drawn into terrorism and is in itself a form of harm.

Extremism is vocal or active opposition to fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs.

Confidentiality and Information Sharing:

ROJA ARTS CIC expects all employees, volunteers and trustees to maintain confidentiality. Information will only be shared in line with the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) and Data Protection.

However, information should be shared with the Local Authority if a child is deemed to be at risk of harm or contact the police if they are in immediate danger, or a crime has been committed.

Recording and Record Keeping:

A written record must be kept about any concern regarding an adult with safeguarding needs. This must include details of the person involved, the nature of the concern and the actions taken, decisions made and why they were made.

All records must be signed and dated. All records must be securely and confidentially stored in line with General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR).

Safe Recruitment & Selection:

ROJA ARTS CIC is committed to safe employment and safe recruitment practices that reduce the risk of harm to young people from people unsuitable to work with them or have contact with them.

Social Media:

All employees and volunteers should be aware of ROJA ARTS CIC social media policy and procedures and the code of conduct for behaviour towards the young people we support.

Use of Mobile Phones and other Digital Technology:

All employees, trustees and volunteers should be aware of ROJA ARTS CIC policy and procedures regarding the use of mobile phones and any digital technology and understand that it is unlawful to photograph young people without the explicit consent of the person with parental responsibilities.

Whistleblowing:

It is important that people within ROJA ARTS CIC have the confidence to come forward to speak or act if they are unhappy with anything. Whistle blowing occurs when a person raises a concern about dangerous or illegal activity, or any wrong- doing within their organisation. This includes concerns about another employee or volunteer. There is also a requirement by ROJA ARTS CIC to protect whistleblowers.
